Programs Committee

The National Law Enforcement Museum

Mission

The National Law Enforcement Museum is dedicated to telling the story of American law enforcement by providing visitors a “walk in the shoes” experience. The Museum is working to expand and enrich the relationship shared by law enforcement and the community through educational journeys, immersive exhibitions, and insightful programs.

Programs Committee

Function

This committee will contribute information that will assist the leadership of the organization in the decision-making process by providing programming ideas.

Purpose

The purpose of our committee is to determine through its collective wisdom the best ideas to increase engagement and attendance to the museum.

Programs Committee

Committee Members

The members of the Programs Committee were handpicked to participate in a year-long commitment because of their role within the museum and their connection to the community.

Community Members

Members of the community are invited to attend the public forum meetings in order to provide more ideas and diversify the types of programs we create for our visitors. This provides an opportunity to participate that allows community members to pick which topic area is most relevant to their interest.

Public Programming – Restorative Justice

Category: Conversation Series

Title: Restorative Justice: Impacts, Challenges, and Results.

Date/Time: Thursday, January 16, 2020 / 6 PM – 8 PM

Sponsor: TARGET

Cost: $10

Moderator: Jodie Fleischer - NBC4 investigative reporter

Description: Restorative Justice is an alternative approach to responding to criminal wrongdoing. It addresses causes, harm done, and responses to crime that heal — rather than harm — citizens and relationships that are necessary for safe communities. Listen to our panel of law enforcement, judicial, and social services experts as they discuss restorative justice, what’s working and what isn’t. Attendees will also hear from someone who’s completed a restorative justice program and the impact it’s had on her.

Panelists:

- Roman Haferd, Restorative Justice Coordinator, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia
- Zachary Terwilliger, U.S. Attorney, Eastern District of Virginia.
- Lashonia Thompson-El, Co-Chief of Violence Reduction, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.
- Aaron Rudolph, Sergeant, Washington Metropolitan Police Department
